

Goin' Up the River

C Tuning: gCGBD

Traditional, arr. by Cathy Barton

TablEdited by

C

G

C

3-4

5

I had a wife and she was a weaver she wouldn't work and I wouldn't either

Oh, little girl, if you don't give me dinner
I'll build me a boat and sail down the river

Boat began to rock, and I began to quiver.
Oh, little girl, I'm goin' down the river.

Good-bye, wife, good-bye, baby,
Good-bye biscuits sopped in gravy.

Coon Creek's up, Coon Creek's muddy,
And I'm so drunk I can't stand steady.